IMPORTANT MESSAGE ABOUT THIS ACCOUNT

This letter will serve as N.A.'s demand for payment and advises you that B, N.A. and/or its Investors and/or Insurers have agreed to accept a short payoff involving the above-referenced property and the referenced account(s). This demand should be used by the closing agent as our formal demand statement. No additional statement will be issued. This approval is exclusive to the offer from the buyer referenced in this letter.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO THE SELLER

Upon receipt of the agreed amount, B, and/or its investors will waive the remaining balance due on the above-referenced loan and release the borrower from further obligation therein, and waive all rights to pursue further judgment or deficiency. B will report the debt as "settled for less than the amount owed" and issue a 1099 for the remaining balance. The seller is encouraged to seek guidance from an independent tax advisor, and/or an attorney, before proceeding with the short sale.

If this short sale is contingent upon B, and/or its investors receiving a promissory note, we will reserve the right to collect the full amount on the new promissory note, which may lead to us pursuing a deficiency on that balance should the need arise. If the short sale does not close, then we will pursue all remedies under our note and mortgage. This offer is contingent upon B receiving a properly executed and notarized Promissory Note, if applicable, to this short sale transaction.

The conditions of the approval are as follows:

1. Closing must take place no later than February 13, 2012 or this approval is void. If an extension is requested and/or approved, then per diem interest will be charged through closing.
2. The approved buyer(s) is/are B and the sales price for the property is $750,000.
3. Another buyer cannot be substituted without the prior written approval of B.
4. Closing costs have been negotiated and agreed upon with the authorized agent as of December 28, 2011.
